

Education Sessions

British Prehistory

The British Prehistory session covers life throughout the Stone Age, Bronze Age, and the Iron Age.

Using original and replica artefacts, this session explores prehistoric life through the objects they used and the stories they tell us; from hunting and gathering techniques, to food, clothing, and technology.

As a case study, we also focus on Otzi the ice man (born 3300BC, found in 1991).

Suitable for	KS1 to adults
Venue	Southend Central Museum
Duration	1 hour
Maximum Numbers	One class
Minimum numbers	10
Cost per person	Child: £4 Adult: £5

